With me, my friend, you will never weep!

Motu Patlu & THE ONLINE LIFE

Conceptualized by the Directorate of Income Tax (PR, P&P), Mayur Bhawan, New Delhi

Ohh Ghasita, How did the bank just freeze our accounts?

They've asked for the PAN number under KYC. How do I suddenly arrange for a PAN number all of a sudden?

Jhatka, I'm in a fix now. How would I make transactions till I arrange for a PAN ?

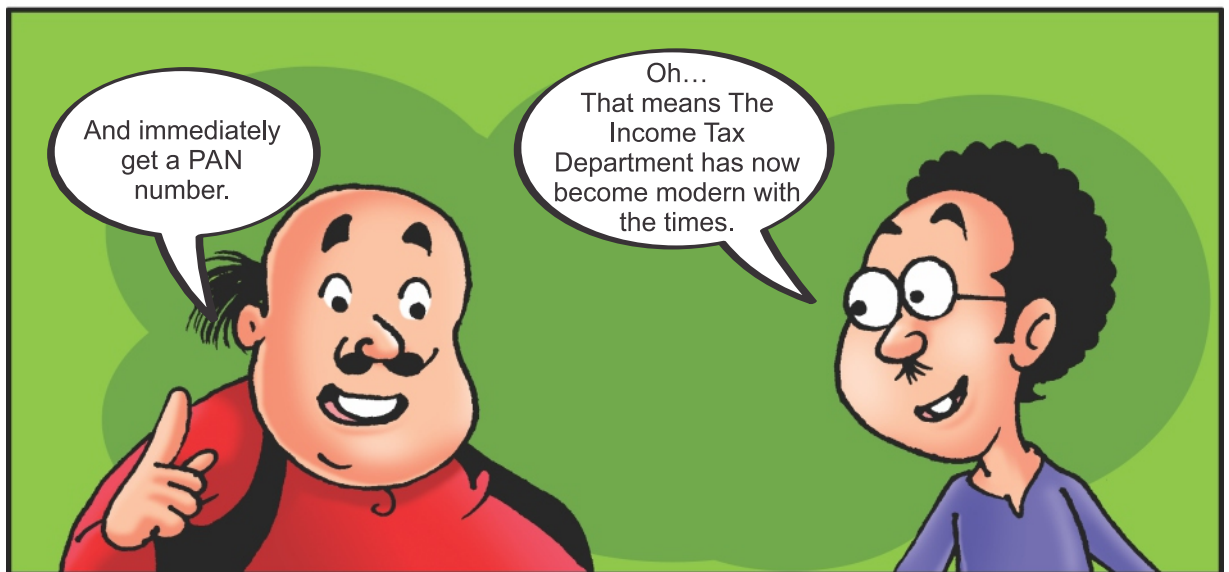

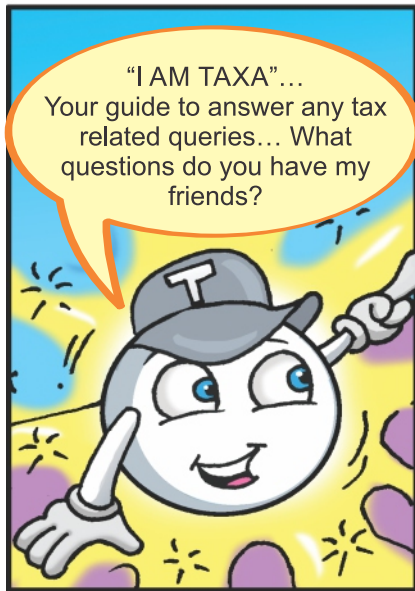

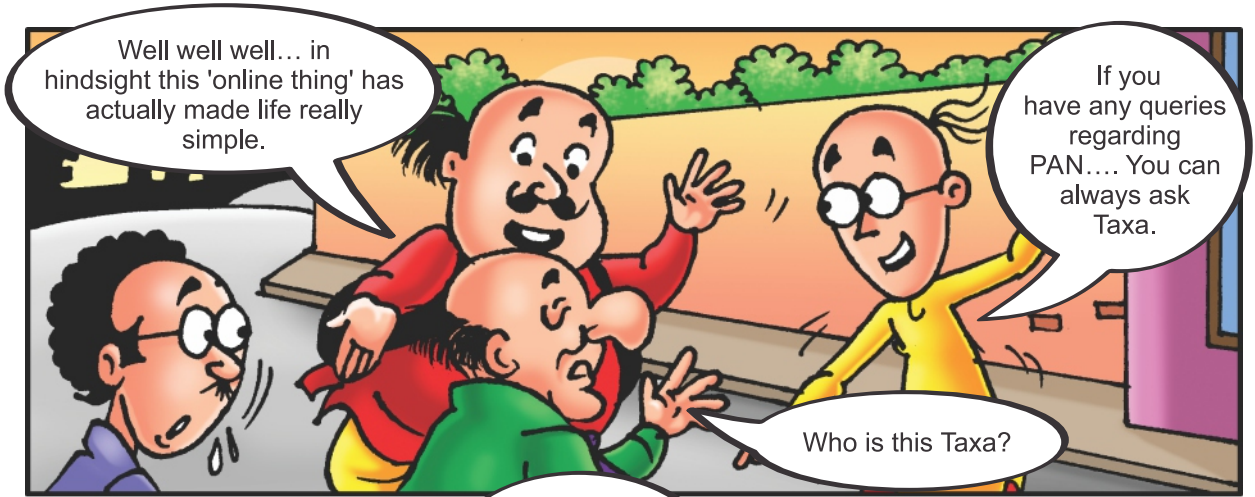

How come our friends are so miserable today. Dr. Jhatka have your patients lost their patience... Hahaha?

I guess Ghasita's students have started taking tuitions online... That's why this '20 years of experience' seems perturbed.

It's all because of this 'online thing'... the bank is now asking for a PAN...

BuHuHu

Absolutely. Now you can e-file Income Tax Returns. That's not all. You can also edit your returns saved securely on the e-filing portal & access tax related information too. All by yourself.

How come... How does the portal know how much of our TDS has been deducted or which properties have we sold & purchased? Is the online portal a magician?

Smart... Seems this portal is a real astrologer... You can logon to the portal to check all your income tax related details.

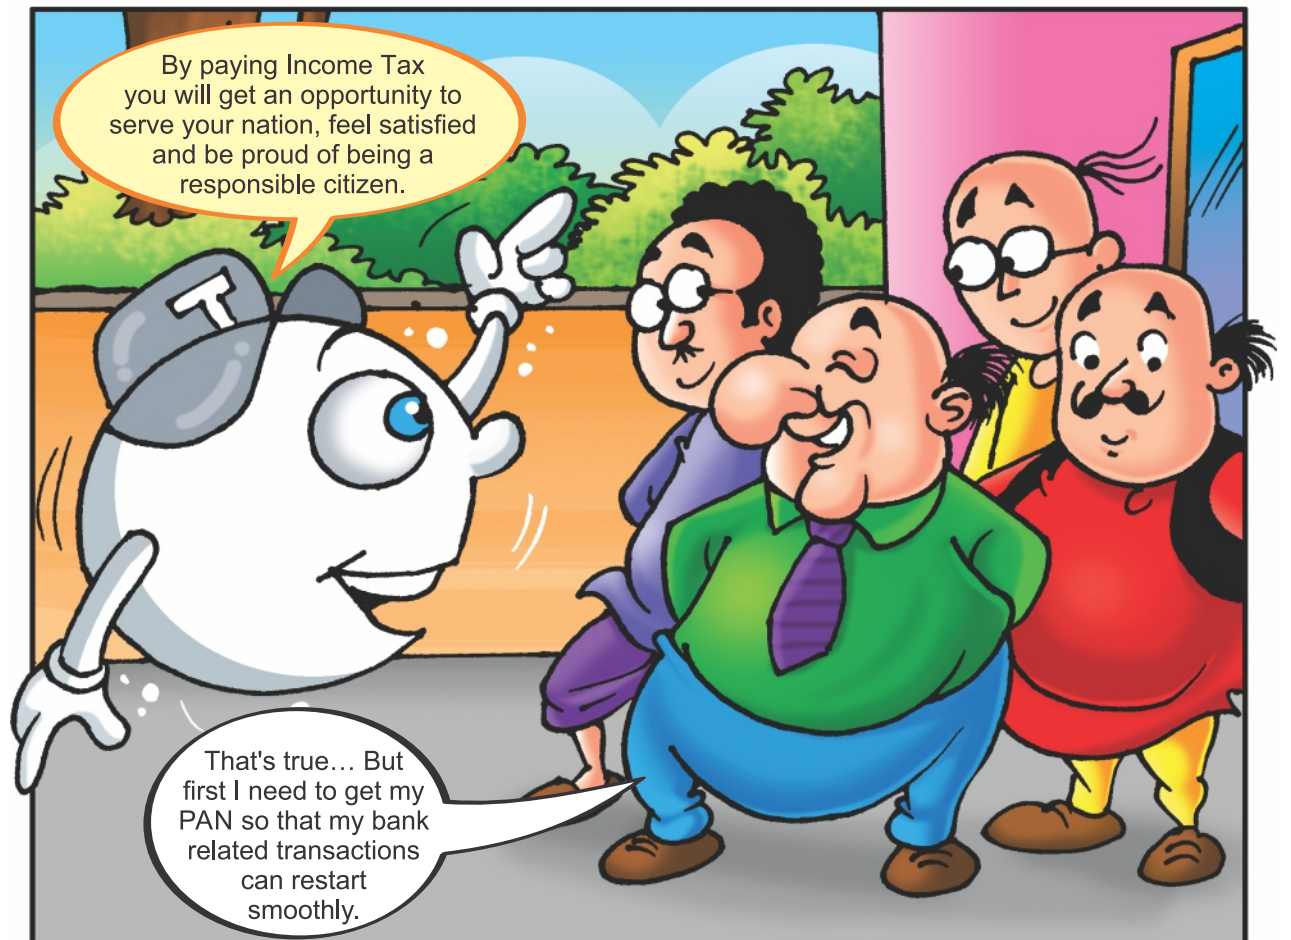

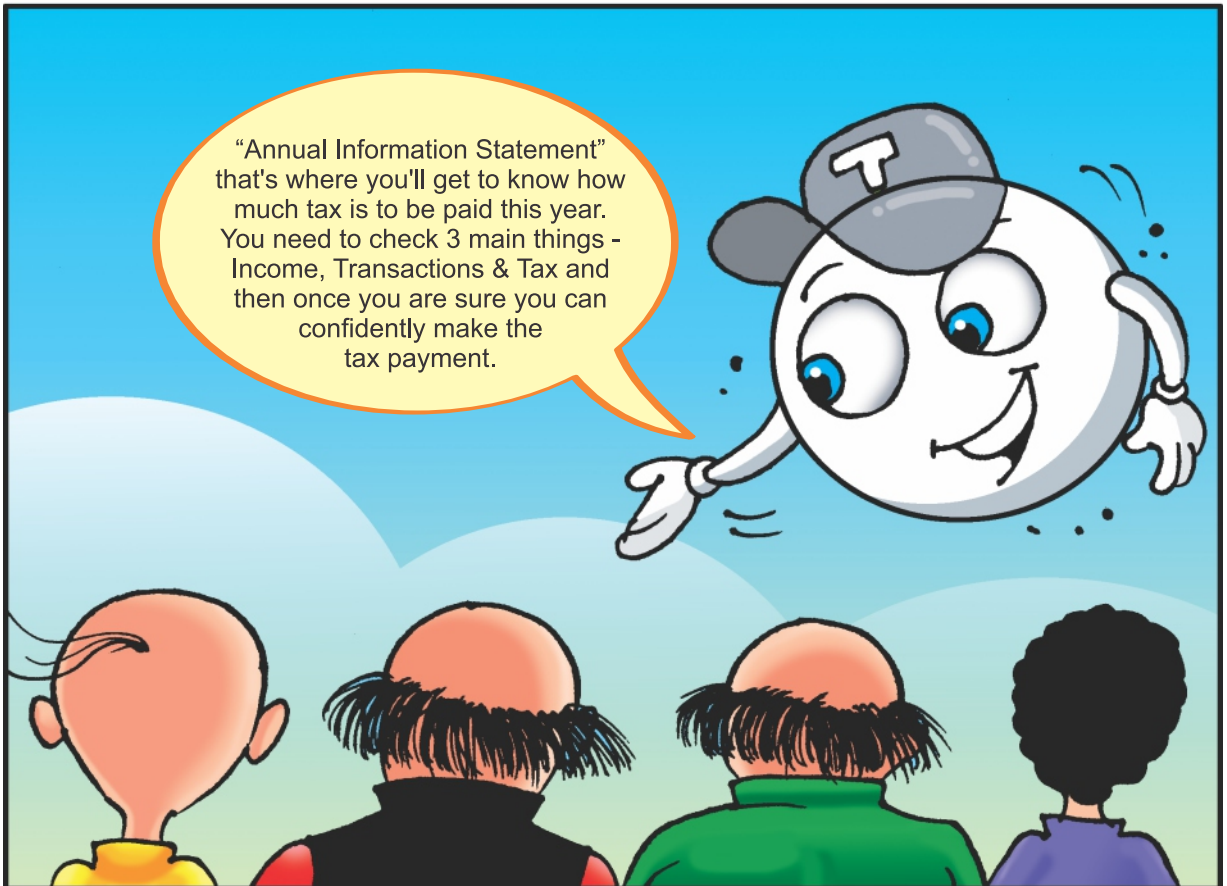

You can file your tax returns from the comfort of your home... you can check it multiple times and edit it too. Once you are sure you can submit online.

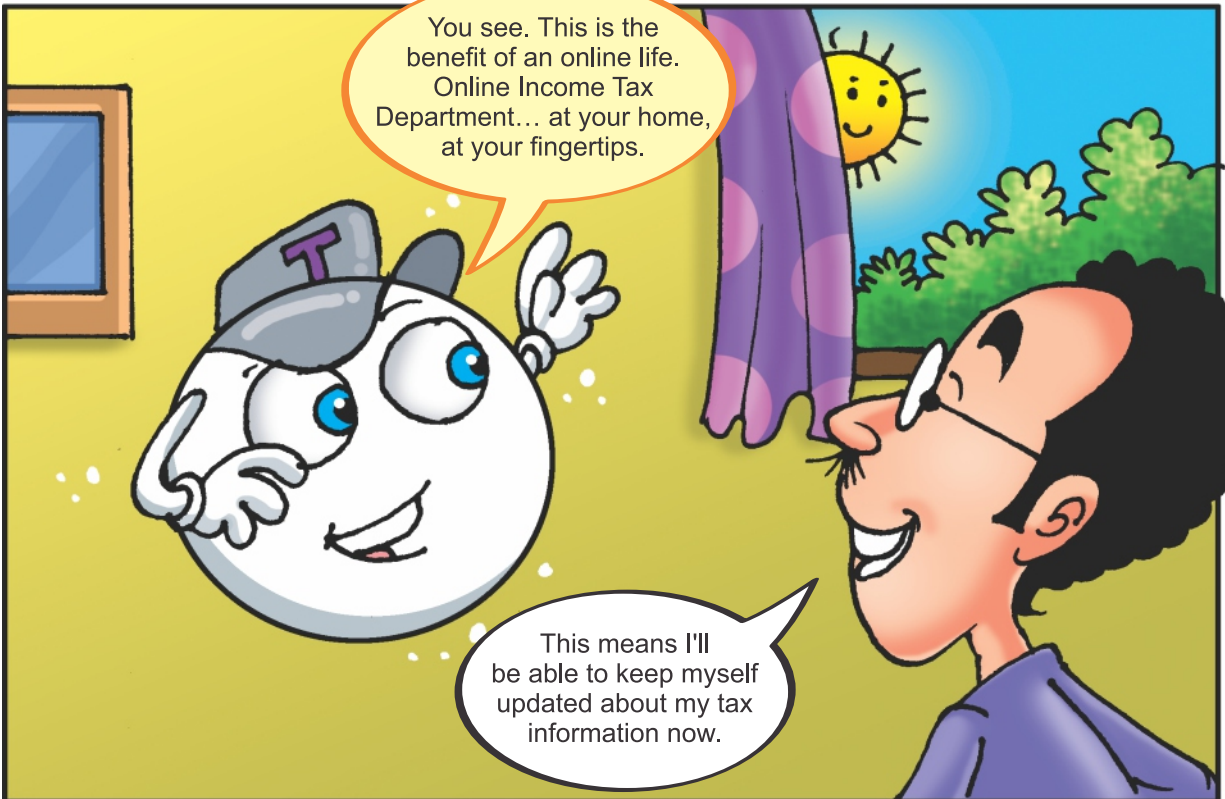

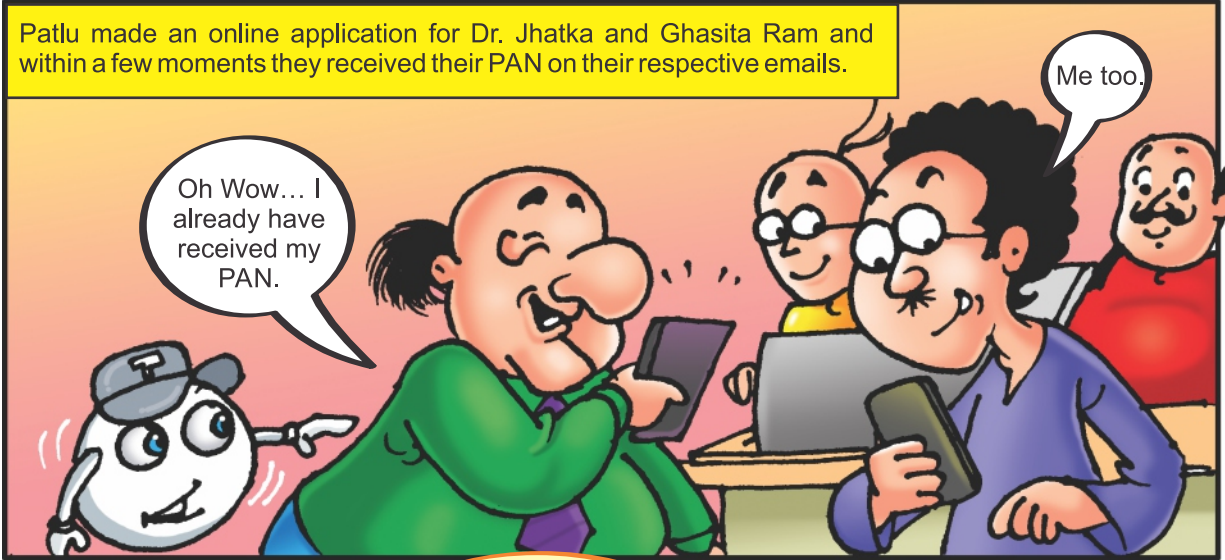

Ghasita, Just like you come over to our place without any invite for snacks.... Similarly you can login to www.incometax.gov.in and check all your account details whenever you like.

Will I get snacks on the portal too?

Absolutely. Motu Patlu are already online savvy... If you too catch up... then you all 4 friends would be ready to pay tax online.

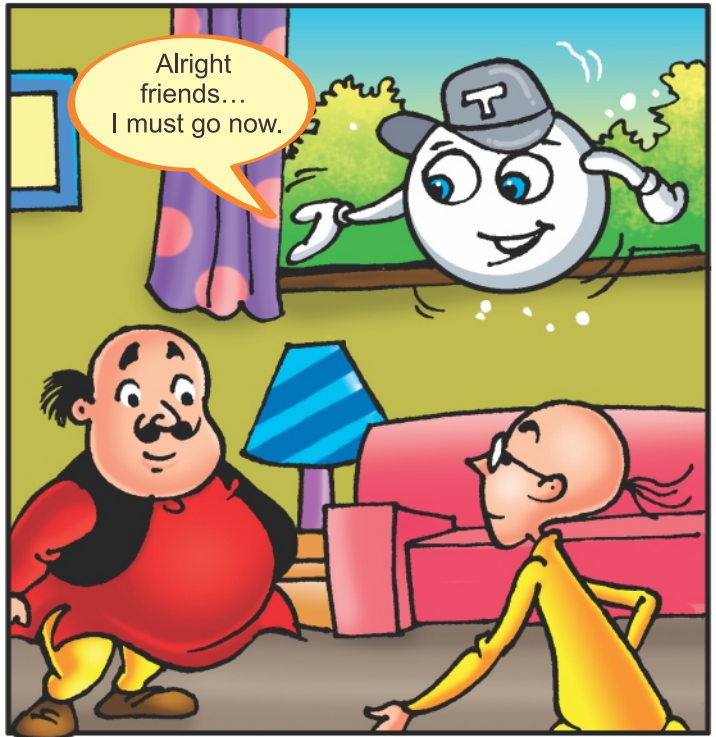

Samosas... I second that.... you know what makes me roll... ha ha ha.

Motu, we've relieved these two of their troubles, this surely calls for a samosa party.

See you... we two are on our way to update our accounts and file our tax returns.

Oh ... I'll order the samosas online... to be delivered at your place.

It's good to keep yourself updated about information related to the Income Tax.

Thanks. We'll call you whenever we need your help.

If you become online savvy & pay your tax on time, you'll be a responsible citizen.

Yess.....
Ghasita's online
samosa order has finally been delivered.... Yum
Yum Yum

See friends...
How life has become so easy... You too stay updated with the times.
